SHORTLIST, RANKED BY FLIP PROFIT

1. 2020, 41k km, Japanese, asking AED 230k, seller (case 002): flip profit about AED 26,000
2. 2022, 39k km, GCC, asking AED 219k, Trovit / DubiCars: flip profit about AED 94,000 (too cheap to trust: sold, typo or bait?)
3. 2020, 13k km, Japanese, asking AED 216k, DubiCars #957066: flip profit about AED 42,000 (verify first: conflicting with 260,000)

WHY

- Buy at AED 230,000, resell privately at about AED 260,000 in 4 to 8 weeks. After about AED 4,200 costs you keep about AED 26,000 (11%).
- Risk: a forced sale to a dealer means AED 0; a hidden accident means -AED 28,000. The checks below remove most of that risk before you pay.
- Japanese spec has fewer buyers than GCC, and each month you hold it costs about AED 2,800. Price it right from day one.
- Exporting it does not pay; resell in the UAE.
- Case 002, using fewer comparables, estimated AED 16,000 profit on this car. Plan on the lower figure; treat anything above it as a bonus.

BEFORE YOU PAY

- History: RTA history certificate, accident report and police status on CC 53874 show no accidents, mortgage or fines.
- Inspection (about AED 700): paint depth through the film, E-Active Body Control test, full code scan.
- Papers: Japan export certificate and UAE customs papers confirm 41,000 km. Walk away if any check fails.

PLATE AND CHASSIS CHECK

- Photo matches the description (matte white film, AMG Line, 2020, no visible damage). Plate Dubai CC 53874, read from the photo. Status, accidents and mortgage are not verified yet: the portals need the owner's UAE PASS and the chassis number.

AGENTS

- Market agent and plate agent exchanged 4 messages; plate agent: partial; final verdict agreed.

Confidence: Medium (13 comparables, asking prices adjusted to private-sale value).
